PERSONAL MEMBERSHIP OF ACCEO

In accordance with the ACCEO Constitution, members of Member Clubs may apply for Personal Membership of the Association.

Privileges of Personal Membership

The privileges of Personal Membership include:

- Directly mailed copies of 'ACCEO Matters', as published.
- Receipt of a numbered membership card which permits access to the privileges above.
- The right to attend ACCEO rallies such as the National rally.
- The right to attend, by invitation, rallies which are organised by Association member clubs using the Association's Certificate of Exemption.
- As a Personal Member of the Association of Caravan and Camping Exempted Organisations you are giving your support to the work of the Association in "Serving the interests of Independent Caravan Clubs".

"ACCEO Companions"

Applicants for Personal Membership who have not, or do not declare membership of a Member Club will be enrolled as members of "ACCEO Companions", a sub group of the Association which is under the jurisdiction of the Executive Committee.

Such members will enjoy the same rights as Personal Members of Member Clubs.

Term of membership

Membership in all cases is for the calendar year renewable on the 1st January each year although new applications received after 30th September will enjoy membership until the end of the succeeding year.

Membership fee

The nominal fee set and amended by the Executive from time to time, provides membership for the nominated member and his/her family.

Application

Application forms for Personal Membership are available at <http://www.acceo.org/PersonalMembership.html>
